

ASSOCIATION OF FILM COMMISSIONERS INTERNATIONAL

Global Perspective – Local Impact

AFCI MEMBERS HELP GET FILM ROLLING ALL OVER THE WORLD

How do you close a street for an important shot? How do you open the doors to an abandoned ghost town? How do you find answers to any location question? You ask a member of the Association of Film Commissioners International (AFCI), the official association of government film contacts worldwide.

The AFCI provides services to film commissions and the production community.

AFCI Programs

- Network of film liaison professionals worldwide.
- AFCI Locations Trade Show. Held annually in Los Angeles, the largest locations and location services trade show in the world.
- AFCI Location Magazine. An annual publication, it provides up-to-date information on global filming locations and resources.
- AFCI Global Passport Directory. A handy reference guide with key contact information for all AFCI members.
- AFCI web site (www.afci.org). The online directory of AFCI members gives production personnel instant access to members and worldwide location via internet.
- Informational seminars. Provides production professionals information regarding on-location shooting and support services around the world.

Additional Industry Benefits

- AFCI members provide fee free location scouting assistance and research.
- AFCI members serves as local liaisons with facilities, production services community and area governments, businesses and other entities.

Additional Member Benefits

In addition to the above, member receive:

- Access to marketing, representation and educational outreach to the entertainment industry and government.
- Free listing in all AFCI directories and web site.
- Participation in Cineposium, the annual AFCI educational conference with seminars, speakers, and information on current events and trends.
- Sponsored participation and access to industry marketing events including trade shows and film festivals (i.e. "AFCI Location Trade Show", the Cannes Film Festival, London Production, BIFCOM in Korea.)
- Access to AFCI industry and member research.

Association of Film Commissioners International
Los Angeles Office Phone: 323-462-6092

Montana Office: 314 North Main, - Helena, MT 59601 Phone: 406-495-8040 – Fax: 406-495-8039 www.afci.org – email: info@afci.org